Summer Chamber Music Workshop 2010

The Mallarmé Youth Chamber Orchestra presents its 4th Annual Summer Workshop under the auspices of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. From orchestras and choir, to guest speakers and enrichment classes, the MYCO Summer Workshop offers six days of intensive training for talented musicians ages 11 to 18.

Daily sessions include chamber group coachings with our distinguished faculty members, as well as orchestra rehearsals. Other workshop classes include music theory and choir. Public performances featuring the chamber groups, orchestras, and choir are presented at the end of the workshop.

The Mallarmé Youth Chamber Orchestra places a strong emphasis on its learning environment. Students enjoy a challenging yet positive atmosphere, with high performance standards. Musicianship skills are developed through peer work and mutual learning. The MYCO Summer Workshop is open to string, piano and woodwind students.

Registration fee: $50 per family, non-refundable.

Summer Workshop tuition: $450 per student.

Registration deadline: April 30, 2010

Dedicated teachers. Enthusiastic students. Come join us for the ultimate summer chamber music experience.

MYCO Summer Workshop Details

Daily schedules include orchestra rehearsal, coachings in two different chamber groups, and individual practice time. Other sessions held regularly are music theory, choir, improv, and accompanying classes for piano students. All activities throughout the day, including organized sports (optional), are supervised by MYCO staff.

Workshop sessions are held in the music buildings of the UNC-Chapel Hill campus. Sessions are scheduled each day from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. 100% attendance by each student is required. Students are also expected to attend the Student Concerts, June 17-19, at 4:00 p.m.

Check-in for the 2010 Summer Workshop will be on Monday, June 14th. The Workshop Faculty Concert will be held during the week.

MYCO students will receive one complimentary ticket, and a MYCO t-shirt.

During the Workshop, lockers will be provided, as well as morning and afternoon snacks. Students should bring a bag lunch.

Parking passes (near Kenan Music Building) will be available for purchase.

Entrance into MYCO programs is by audition only. MYCO is suited for students who are moderately advanced (ages 11-14) and advanced (ages 14-18). Prospective students should contact the MYCO Registrar before registering.

Registration deadline: April 30, 2010

Registration fee: $50 per family, non-refundable (postmarked by deadline).

Late registration fee: $100, if space available.

Summer Workshop tuition: $450 per student.

Tuition payment deadline: May 15, 2010 (postmarked)

Late tuition fee: $100 per student. No tuition refunds after May 15, 2010.

The Mallarmé Youth Chamber Orchestra believes that tuition costs should not stand in the way of musical education and opportunity. Some merit-based scholarships are available. Contact the MYCO Registrar for more information.

THE MALLARMÉ YOUTH CHAMBER ORCHESTRA is a non-profit pre-professional program focusing on orchestral and chamber music performance. Founded in 2005, MYCO is proud to offer an outstanding learning environment for its students. In 2009 & 2010, student chamber groups from the MYCO Honors Chamber Program performed for the Tokyo and Orion string quartets, and MYCO guest clinicians included violinist Sherry Kloss and cellist Shmuel Magen.
